Rhönrad Summercamp

in the Netherlands

25 July – 3 August 2012

Dutch

Every two years the IRV, the International Rhönrad Verein for wheel gymnastics, organises an international training camp for gymnasts across the world. The goals are to acquaint more people with the sport, to enable gymnasts to learn from each other and to improve the skill levels within the various countries.

In 2012 the international camp will take place in Ede, The Netherlands. A large group of volunteers is in full swing with all the necessary preparations. Rhönrad wheel gymnastics has a firm basis in Ede, with many members of the local gymnastics club active in the sport and its promotion. The volunteers hope to greet you during the international camp.
